Holding on to the Memories

Remember your first football game? How about your first kiss? Wasn't it important to get your first locker? Getting an unexpected "A" in place of the deserved "F" and vowing to study harder were also memories. How about play performances with standing ovations? Unforgettable. How about the worst date you ever had? The most memorable thing about North Thurston High School was the fighting through the crowds on your way to class. Any memory about your friends, family, and events are all special things you kept inside. This theme recognizes the memories held by all of the students at North Thurston High School.

The old North Thurston High School, seen from Sleater-Kinney, lasted from 1955 through 1982. Today, many of the faculty members remain from the old school.

Greetings from the '92 Annual Staff

Greetings from the 1992 annual staff. Why are we next to the theme page? We wanted to introduce ourselves as the authors of this book. Annual class was a lot of hard work, and it took much dedication. However, it was a lot of fun! Everything each person did was rewarding in some way or another.

We have high standards, and many times, pages had to be redone. We also set some high goals for ourselves. We wanted to put everyone in the book twice, and we wanted to spell everyone's name correctly. We hope you enjoy the yearbook because a lot of hard work went into it!

Left: Ms. Sharon Hartnett, annual advisor, explains her organizational strategies for annual class at our summer one day workshop where we also swam, hot tubbed, and barbecued.

Ram Cam!

The Class of '93 show their spirit and enthusiasm as they are now leaders of North Thurston.

Casey Jones, sophomore, points out to Casaundra Luckey, junior, the finer things in the commons.

Students meet in the commons to socialize with friends before going to class. The commons held many other activities that all relate to school.

Anne Marie Herness, Rachel Baker and Rachel Royal, seniors, smile big for the Ram Cam. Many students volunteered to have a picture taken.

Amy Stendera and Debby Nugent, sophomores, were caught off guard, showing their school spirit.

Bravo! Bravo!

Holding each other in a dramatic embrace in a play is senior Jory Sugarman and sophomore Lindsay Walker.

During a pep assembly, the Dance Team, led by senior Jennifer Leverington, marches to the rhythm of the beating music being played in the gym.

Pumping up the enthusiasm of the school's spirit, the band members prepare themselves for the pep assembly.

Under the supervision of Mr. Ian Edlund, the String Orchestra members were able to keep the steady flow of the lovely music they played. This was their second concert held at North Thurston.

"I Act Therefore I am."

Watch out world! Here comes some real actors. Our Drama Club is a very dedicated group of young students who have a knack for acting. This group is after school every day except for Friday preparing for their next performance.

Their fall play was entitled Arsenic and Old Lace. Their spring play was entitled One Dark and Stormy Night. The advisor, Mr. Bill Bassett, showed great leadership ability. Their hard work and dedication paid off in their performances.

Front row: Beth Carlsen, Justin Mc Intyre, Ryan Metlen, Kim Baker, Mike Heath, Katrina Maanao, Lindsey Walker, Devin Montgomery. Second row: John Rozmaryn, Doug Gifford, Travis Yonker, Hillary Hunt, Zack Grausen, Anna Seaman, Brian Stucki. Third row: Jennifer Samland, Krista Flanagan, John Koch, Jennifer Diltrich, Matt Keith, Dana Epperson, Kristina Manor, Emily Walker, Chris Brown, Dee Dee Dilboh, Matt Russell, Stephanie Brock, Seth Taylor, Josh Johnson.

Seniors Brian Stucki, Nancy Gifford and Sophomores Stephanie Brock and Josh Johnson are real actors as they perform in the play Arsenic and Old Lace.

Seniors Jory Sugarman and Nancy Gifford embrace in each others arms in the play Arsenic and Old Lace.

Music Maestros

The Symphony and String Orchestra must be prepared to play any piece that Mr. Ian Edlund passes out. All orchestra players must have a positive attitude towards fellow orchestra members and their competitors.

Symphony and String Orchestra had a contest that was held at Capital High School. Once a year, both orchestras get together to play a piece that Mr. Edlund selects for them.

"I like all the different sounds of the string instruments. I like all sorts of pieces, especially the challenging ones."

-Phouang Sixiengmay, sophomore

Band members must practice, be hard working, and dedicated. The members of Symphonic Band must audition the previous year. The Concert Band and Symphonic Band played together in parades and sporting events. The bands participated in the contest at Mark Morris High School. The Symphonic Band participated in the Band Festival in Abbotsford, Canada.

"It's very challenging and fun. It's very inspirational for future players."
-Kim Nicholson, junior

"Band can be fun with a little hard work."
-Sharon Finden, sophomore

During Bandfest '93 conductor, Mr. Terry Turner, directs the symphonic band while the concert band listens closely.

Chorus Line

North Thurston Choir is a quality program directed by Mr. Randy Poff. There are three outstanding choirs. First there is the girls' choir, which is mostly freshman and others who didn't audition for Concert Chorale. They sang songs of different languages such as Japanese, Latin, German, and African. In March they went to Kelso for group contest and Capital High School for Solo and Ensemble contest. During Christmas they sang at Capital Mall.

The next choir is Concert Chorale. Students must tryout for Concert Chorale out of girls' choir. The Concert Chorale has sung at the fall and winter concerts, graduation, both group and Solo and Ensemble.

The third choir is Jazz. Students must tryout for Jazz out of Concert Chorale. Jazz choir sings mainly Jazz, modern ballads, and some Madrigals. They sang all over the community for Christmas. They went to the Tyee Hotel where they sang for former Gov. Booth Gardner and to Panorama City to sing for the elderly. All three choirs performed at three major school concerts.

Front Row: Sariah Compton, Emma Rule, Nanci Gifford, Chris Shilley

GO! FIGHT! WIN!

The varsity cheerstaff, as usual, had an outstanding year. They started out their season by performing in the Lakefair parade, which they received 1st place in. Several weeks later they went to cheer camp at Central Washington University in Ellensburg. They spent a very tiring, hard, fun, and educational week there. While there, they received the Leadership Award, and the Pep Paddle. They practiced daily the rest of the summer, to make sure to be ready for the upcoming football season. They had very exciting and busy football and basketball seasons as they cheered both teams to play-offs. They worked very hard all year to make sure that each assembly and all school activities were properly put together.

There were two squads added to this year: the Pep Squad and the Rally Squad. The Pep Squad, who cheered for the girls events volleyball and basketball, and the Rally Squad who cheered for wrestling. They both had a great season and a lot of fun.

Varsity Squad

Let's Dance

This year's dance team had an excellent year. The year long season began almost immediately following try-outs. The team made many appearances such as the Lakefair parade, the camp at the University of Puget Sound, many elementary schools, and of course, the half time shows for basketball and football games.

The year started out great. The team made excellent improvements as the season progressed. Ending the year, the team put on their two annual fund-raising events: a dance clinic for kids, and the Tolo dance. The team had a very fulfilling season.

Dance Team Officers: Nikki Mailey, Fundraising Chairperson; Lora Kreidler, First Captain; Jennifer Leverington, Second Captain; Anne Herness, Secretary

Puttin' On A Show

"It is not as easy as it looks," captain Kim Nicholson said, "especially since we had a whole new team except for two returning members." A lot of time was put into practicing and coming up with new routines.

What many people don't know is that the flag team is part of the band. Without much input from advisor Mr. Terry Turner, they worked independently. The team feels this year went pretty well considering the team was so new. Next year they hope to participate in the pep-assemblies.

The flag team performs at a football game. They added excitement during half-time.

Captain Kim Nicholson provides leadership for the team. She hopes next year to have a team as good.

Dedication:

Karen Shaw

This year, the annual has proudly been dedicated to Mrs. Karen Shaw.

Her position here, at North Thurston High School is the school book-keeper.

She is married to Roy Shaw and they have two children (Brian and Jenny Shaw). Brian is a junior at Timberline High School, and Jenny is attending Woodland Elementary School.

She is highly appreciated here at North Thurston and does a tremendous amount of work.

Many regards to Mrs. Shaw and her involvement at North Thurston High School.

"Mrs. Shaw is a very bright person who will lend her advice for any problem."

-Kelly Haynes, senior

"Karen Shaw... would be impossible to replace. She takes great pride in the accuracy of her work and North Thurston High School. She cares about the kids and displays a pleasant and competitive attitude."

-Mr. Tony Hawkins

Mrs. Karen Shaw sits productively at her desk, in the office. Smiling, as always she poses for the camera.

Summer Memories

Summer...what does it mean to you? North Thurston students had many different ideas:

- Getting a tan
- Going to parties
- Catching up on sleep
- Getting a job
- Going on vacation

Some experiences students had were:

"I spent the summer looking for a job and getting a lot of sleep."

-Jose Torres, senior

"This summer I wrecked my car."

-Terry Syverson, senior

"I went to Canada and visited some museums. The wax museum was the coolest!"

-Rachel Brown, freshman

"I went camping and had fun with my friends."

-Simone Budd, junior

Freshman Erika Raney went kayaking during the summer. She spent two weeks in the San Juan Islands.

Junior Jennifer Dittich and senior Hillary Hunt, visited many of the sights in Washington D. C. including the Washington Monument.

Junior Julie Pettit went to Toyko Disneyland over the summer. While she was there, she learned the difference between student life here and student life on the other side of the world.

Some students preferred to just stay home with a "few" friends. Seniors Krista Marti, Charla Avery, Sarah Armstrong, Gael Kuhna, Amy Jackson, Maria Parker, Nikki Malley, and Jennifer Middleton show us how much fun it can be.

Senior Matt Keith spent some time in Mexico with the Over Summer Cultural Exchange and Nature Study class. The O. C. E. A. N. S. class involved learning about nature and Mexican culture.

Sophomore Ryan Shultz was in Baltimore, Maryland playing baseball in the Continental Amateur Baseball of America World Series. Ryan played catcher.

"Spirit Week was an exciting week, full of fun activities. I had a lot of fun."

-Misty Hollingshead
freshman

"Spirit Week is a time where everyone can express their true colors. I personally find that it brings our school together."

-Jessica Sands, sophomore

"Spirit Week was a lot of fun and made for a great Homecoming."

-Rob Backman, junior

"As a senior, Spirit Week showed how much spirit we can give to the school."

-Rachel Baker, senior

"Spirit Week is a fun time, but the leaders of the school need to be more involved in order for the student body to get excited about it."

-Miss Ronna Reed, teacher

Bottom: Senior Tina Mercer shows her brute strength and fortitude for North Thurston during the Homecoming Pep Assembly.

A Starry Night

On October 23, 1992, the Ram band led the Homecoming parade with a drumming beat. Followed by the band were groups such as dance team, cheerleaders, and floats to represent each class. This year's theme for the floats was famous plays.

As the parade marched into South

Sound Stadium, the Homecoming game went underway. Starting out the game was a 97-yard return by Mike Sellers. Other touchdowns were made by Jason Williams and Brian Brennan.

The half time show added great excitement to the crowd. The court was presented. Britt Waldum was crowned queen and Steve Lim king.

The Ram team returned and played strong. The final score was North Thurston 36, Bellarmine 10.

"It was a good win and good to beat Bellarmine for the first time and on Homecoming." -Brian Brennan Junior Jason Williams (No. 7) tears away from a Bellarmine player as he crosses the goal line. North Thurston had a 23-3 lead into halftime.

Coach Rocky Patchin gets the crowd fired up during the Homecoming Pep Assembly.

As halftime came to an end, the band and dance team formed a tunnel for the Ram football team, building intensity and desire for the win that was to come in the second half. Leading the team is senior Mike Sellers (No. 44).

Princess Rebecca Weaver and Escort Sean Weston ride the junior float during halftime.

Queen Britt Waldum, King Steve Lim, Princess Krista Young, and Escort Lorenzo Jones parade through the stadium waiting to be presented to the crowd during half time.

Homecoming '92

On October 24, 1992, North Thurston spent an "Evening Under the Stars" dancing to the theme song "I'd Die Without You" by PM Dawn. Being the first time a formal dance has been held in the gym, students felt that there was more room to dance.

"I had a good time and I liked to see everyone dressed up. It was a night I will never forget!"

-Diana Butterton, sophomore

"The best Homecoming ever!"

-Chris Shilley, senior

Royalty of '92 were freshmen Dan Kemper and Amlee Beaulaurier, sophomores Mike Lim and Phoauang Sbdengmay, juniors Sean Weston and Rebecca Weaver, seniors Lorenzo Jones and Krista Young, King Steve Lim and Queen Britt Waldum.

Chaperones Mrs. Patricia Slosson, Mrs. Barbara Dittrich, Mrs. Leslie Arth, and Ms. Marianne Larson.

Seniors, Nikki Mailey, Lora Kreidler, Britt Waldum, Sarah Armstrong, Krista Marti, and Jeny Middleton enjoyed their last Homecoming together.

Senior Lora Kreidler and junior Jason Williams head off for an evening under the stars.

Joey Hawkins and date Jeny Middleton doubled with Mike Sellers and Sarah Armstrong.

Seniors Chad Blaseck, Brian Brennan, and Steve Lim were posing for the camera with sophomores Tirah Schoenfeldt, Heather Barber, and Amber Robertson.

Top: Tirzah Schoenfeldt and Heather Barber, sophomores, have time in their busy schedules to pose for us.

Bottom: John Taylor and Tom Lash, seniors, look confused about what they're supposed to be doing.

Left: Freshmen Tony Skouton, Peter Jekel, Kathrine Wilbrecht, Jessica Allen, and John Gobel spend their lunch period on the main stairway.

Juniors Ryan Stoneberg, Steve Lim, and Nikki Malley are busy at work as office TA's. Some of their duties included answering the phones, finding people, and answering the questions of lost and confused people. They are a great and appreciated help to the office secretaries.

Seniors Rachel Royale and Ann Herness are dressed up for their dance team performance. This summer they danced in the annual Lakefair Parade. They also attended a dance camp, which proved itself profitable and was a lot of fun.

Above: During an outdoor Pep Assembly, juniors Lisa Leons, Stephanie Funk, Tisha Becker, Tiffany Burton, and Mandy Goddard cheer on the players. This was the first outdoor Pep Assembly held in September and was enjoyed by all.

Star Search '92

In June 1992 the dance team, Sparkle X's 3, had a chance to make a dream come true. They were interviewed after a dance routine for the television show, Star Search. They impressed the judges so much that they were sent to Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, Nevada, where they were informed that they had made it on Star Search.

Their first competition was a group called Counter-culture. They easily defeated them and went on to face the reigning champions, Yamoto. At first they tied, so it was then, the audience's turn to vote. Afterwards, they were chosen as the new champions.

"This was a once-in-a-life time experience."

-Sparkle X's 3

Juniors Heather Shanahan, Shelley DeBoer, and Lori Albright are greeted by Ed McMahon after competing on Star Search. Sparkle X's 3 got a lot of support from the school; they even performed at an outdoor assembly before they went to compete.

We are not now that strength which in old days moved earth and heaven, that which we are, we are: One equal temper of heroic hearts, Made weak by lime and fate, but strong in will to strive, to seek, to find,
and not to yield.

Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Assistant Principal, Mr. Tony Hawkins

Caught off guard, the new principal, Ms. Karen Eitrem smiles for the photographer. She took over Dr. Jim Koyal when he took a position at district office.

Assistant Principal Ms. Ann Allen checks her busy schedule to make yet another appointment. She is in charge of sophomores, ESL, works with college student teachers, staff evaluation, in and out of district transfers, advises the Peer Tutoring Program, and National Honor Society.

Ms. Karen Eitrem introduces the new teachers at the Fall Welcoming Assembly, as Mr. Tony Hawkins looks on. Ms. Eitrem is in charge of Everything.

Assistant Principal Mr. Tony Hawkins is Master of Ceremonies at the first outdoor assembly. He is in charge of supervising teachers, co-curricular activities, building and maintenance, and discipline and attendance for freshman.

Interpreters show their school spirit by signing N.T.H.S. Having them at North Thurston enables the hearing impaired to attend a regular high school. North Thurston is one of the few schools that have the special programs such as Special Education, ESL, and the hearing impaired.

ESL

Mrs. Margaret Edwards, ESL teacher, helps Be Nguyen. The ESL program at N.T.H.S. enables students from other countries to learn English.

*Chuggey,
We are very proud of you!
Love
Mom and Dad*

Dear Russ,
Remember with fondness.
Look forward with confidence.
May your future be filled with all the wonderful things you deserve!
Our Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Lars!
You have always been a special joy in our lives. You make us more proud every day through your hard work, caring for others, and setting your goals high. We love you!
Dad, Mom, and Erik. Car pe Diem!

*Nicki,
You've changed a little. One thing that will not change is God's love for you and our love for you. We are very proud!
Mom, Dave, and Diana*

SAM.

You have come a long way son.
From crawling on rugs
To lifting weights.
From playing with bugs
To looking in at home plates.
From our nightly hugs
To going on dates.
You will be leaving our world
But never our hearts.
We love you son.

Mom&Dad

P.S. Beat South K.

We don't just love you because you're our kid... We love you because you're interesting and fun and talented and kind and thoughtful and smart and friendly... AND because you're our kid! We're very proud of you and hope all your dreams come true.

Love Mom, Dad, and Greg

To our Baby Vandal.

You've always worked hard to reach your goals and now you're in the stars. Congratulations in all that you have accomplished. (we) YOU.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Matt, Jody, Jeff, Terry, Scott

Jen and Eva,

We sure have been through alot the past 11 years. From taking baths together, to going out on the weekends together. Before we go our seperate ways to live our lives, I'd like to leave you with this scripture:

Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For ever one who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.

Matthew 7:7-8

Love always and forever,
Maria

What's a big sister to do when one of her little brothers graduates (besides feel a little old)? I thought I might give you some advice: whatever you do, make sure you are truly happy and never lose track of who you are or what you stand for. I admire your motivation, courage and intelligence. It's quite inspiring. However, don't forget to RELAX once in a while. After all, it's not worth it if you can't enjoy it.

GOOD LUCK AND HAVE FUN !!
KEEP ON SKIING !!

Love your bigsis, Kristin

My son Brian,

You will always be a winner in my mind.

Love,
Mom

Niko,

Throughout the years, we've been through good times and bad, but remained friends through everything. I'm very proud of you and as you grow up, I wish you the best of luck in all that you do.

Love always,
Maria

Rob,
We've always been proud of you and we're even more proud of you now.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Jennifer, and Natalie

No Time To Play!

Senior Jeff Evans studies his favorite subject of electronics with the advantage of using a computer.

The commons (social pit) was the main gathering for students. Things such as the Club Fair, lunches, and concerts were held in this vicinity. This year the commons were more crowded than last year due to the huge freshman class that arrived.

Top Left: Juniors Robert Paganini and Rebecca Weaver were ready for another day of mind-filling facts about their history.

College Bound

The Running Start Program is a unique partnership between South Puget Sound Community College and North Thurston High School. Juniors and seniors from North Thurston attend college classes to earn high school credits that are required to graduate earlier than expected and to earn college credits as well.

The Running Start Student is offered a full range of vocational and academic courses to further their education at SPSCC.

"It allows us to take classes more in depth, because it's on a college level than those offered here at North Thurston."

An Apple A Day

Senior Maelca Malave is a part of the Apple Academy. She shows Mrs. Barbara Carnets' spanish class just how easy it is to learn.

The future of education lies in our hands. The teaching academy is a program designed for high school students to get a taste of the teaching profession. It consists of two periods: one to teach students and the other period gives students a chance to teach inside the classroom.

"The teaching academy is a wonderful class. This class prepares us for a career in a leadership position."

Working Hands On

The Skills Center, which is located in Tumwater, is where students go to learn a trade with hands-on training for a particular skill such as culinary arts. This is where students learn to prepare food and set up for a restaurant type of business. Another example is where students learn carpentry by working on particular projects. This gave the students experience and prepared them in the job field of their choice.

The students got there by the school bus and arrived at the Skills Center for their classes either in the morning, afternoon, or all day. The bus picked them up at 7:40 for the morning classes or around 10:40 for the afternoon classes. It helped the students get acquainted with the world outside of school and to understand what it is all about.

Senior Jenice Hansen (center) plays along with the children from the Early Childhood Education class, which is at the Skills Center, in an educational game.

Getting ready for his welding session, junior Jason Dressel puts on his head gear. Jason is also a member of the men's wrestling team.

Winning Scholars!

Seniors Travis Yonker and Kim Baker talk about school. Travis is also a member of the annual staff.

Sitting comfortably at their desks, seniors Clarissa Holloway and Mike Heath talk over an English assignment.

Students who took the PSAT at the Bower Center during their junior year and scored high on it were not only testing how well they can do on the "real" SAT, but also how much they had achieved learning. Their reward in return would be making it as a commended scholar, or better yet, a semi-finalist for the National Merit Scholars Award!

The semi-finalists are announced during their senior year and soon after that, the final decision is made which determines whether or not the award is given to that individual.

Glancing up at the photographer, senior Geoff Warner takes his time for an unexpected pose. Geoff made it as a semi-finalist for the National Merit Scholars award.

Learning Ram Style The Creative Touch

The ESL (English as a Second Language) students came from various parts of the world such as Korea, Vietnam, The Phillipines, Cambodia, Laos, Samoa, Mexico, and Bolivia. They came to the United States for different reasons. For instance, to join their family, to get out of refugee camps, to immigrate, to escape persecutions or revolutions, and perhaps to have a better life.

The ESL teachers, Mrs. Margaret Edwards and Mrs. Julia Collins, taught their students English in the two portables, USA and EL Savador, which are located behind the schools building. Their purpose was so that their students could mainstream into the school's curriculum and to be able to function in society.

Mrs. Julia Collins and senior Thao Vo, who assists Mrs. Margaret Edwards in the afternoon, talk over a homework assignment that was due.

During her sixth period class, Mrs. Margaret Edwards and senior Be Nguyen, work together on the computer in Chad.

Junior Sung Me Hwang, runs into her first period class which is in Mrs. Margaret's ESL portable USA. Sung Me has immigrated with her family to the United States since last summer.

After zealously working in Mrs. Nancy Wilson's art class, sophomore Pam Bailey washes up at the counter in the sink.

Working hard on a drawing is senior Peter Bottwell.

Admiring her well-done job on the ceramic pottery is junior Julie Weber.

Learning from a broad range of creative studies, such as color and design, calligraphy, painting, pottery, drawing, textile and design, printmaking, and sculpture, the students opened up their artistic ability by displaying their talents in their work in class.

The teachers, Mrs. Debbie Vanderhoof and Mrs. Nancy Wilson, kept their students optimistic about art and taught them how they may represent themselves by personalizing their projects to show their feelings, emotions, and the way they see the world. Selected groups of art pieces was shown in displays in the halls near the counseling center and were very catching to the eye.

Society Of Honor

Pride. That's it. The National Honor Society prides itself on four major principles: 1. Character 2. Service 3. Leadership and 4. Scholarship. Throughout the school year the members promoted these basic beliefs through their actions and thoughts.

Current members gained membership by having and maintaining a 3.4 or above grade point average. They were then sent applications to be in this eclectic club. Prospective members not only had to maintain their G.P.A. but also had to have been active in the school and the community.

Induction night was held last November, and a bowling party at Westside Lanes in December, and a lock-in January at the school were some activities. In the spring, members participated in a community service, the Honor Society also sponsored the Honors and Awards night in May. With over 100 members, they were one of the largest clubs at school.

Joining Hands

The Minority Club was started by a group of North Thurston students. Some of them Rajeana Morris, Julian Harris, Tony Cary, Rahm Drettenbos, and Nancy Sellers.

This group of teenagers started the Minority Club because they felt the need to get together with other minorities and discuss important issues.

This group of teenagers got together with Ms. Anne Allen and others and made the Minority Club. Since then, minorities at North Thurston have been having meetings.

Sophomores Tiffany Carter, Tiffany Anderson, and Tamyra McKay cheerfully pose for the world. As best of friends, these three girls are ready to challenge anything.

International Club members Tammy Rose, Jason Peck, Julie Kim, James Plummer, Darcy Imus, Lars Anderson, and Kathy Rogers show off their costumes during the Club's annual Halloween Party.

The International club's name was changed this year from the Foreign Language Club. Leaders felt the old name sounded like it would exclude people and that is not what they wanted. The International Club is for everyone!

Club meetings are held once a month where they enjoy learning about cultures and languages of nations around the world.

Many parties are also planned throughout the year to celebrate the holidays and festivals of these countries. Some of these include a welcoming party for new members in September, a Halloween costume party, International Thanksgiving for exchange students, and a Christmas party where members could learn about many of the different ways Christmas is celebrated throughout the world. The Chinese new year and many other holidays are celebrated and learned about also.

So come and join the fun with the International Club.

"I enjoy just getting together, eating food, and having a lot of fun."
-James Plummer, junior

"I like playing games, eating, and learning different languages."

Hearty Hiking Club

The Hiking Club was supposed to go on a hike every other weekend, but most of the hikes were cancelled because of excessive snow. The Hiking Club goes on Saturdays and spends the whole day hiking. They even went cross country skiing at Paradise.

"It was a good form of exercise while learning and being one with nature."

-Darcy Ooten, sophomore

Men At Work

VICA is the Vocational Industries Club of America. The people in VICA do such things as welding and carpentry. The best people from those areas go to competition in districts, regionals, state, and sometimes even nationals. VICA shows the value of hard work. The skills learned in this club can be used tomorrow in making a living.

To the Extreme

This year the North Thruston Ski Club, led by advisor Mr. Evan Humphreys, got off to a slow start. The main purpose of the club this year was to keep the members up to date about the newest ski areas, techniques, and equipment. The club did not have a big ski trip, as it has had in years past. "We hope next year to have more activities," said Mr. Evan Humphreys.

Lights, Camera, Action!!!

Are you video camera shy? The members of the broadcast journalism class definitely aren't. The class brought out shows which were featured on the local television Channel 31 on Wednesday nights and Saturday mornings.

The class was led by Mr. Bill Bassett who organized the class so that each person's ideas could be put on N.T.V. The class had a slow start, but caught on quickly. This is what Peter Evens had to say about the class, "It's fun because it enables us to be creative and experience working together."

Seniors Peter Evans and Steve Lim act out their skit Stevie Quon.

This year's Rampage staff had an outstanding year putting out the school newspaper. Each student put in a great effort by submitting in articles to interest everyone. The class tried to make some changes this year by adding more color, opinions, and photos.

Though this year's staff was a brand new one, they still came through to have one of their best years yet. "The whole class this year tried really hard to make the paper one that more people at North Thurston would read," stated editor, Beth Carlsen.

Striving For Perfection Fun For All

Debate, or the more sophisticated term, Forensics, is a form of public interaction which includes Cross Examination Debate, Lincoln Douglas Debate, and Individual Events. By competing in these events, various skills were learned and developed: analysis, logic, organization, public speaking, and argumentation research.

The team participated in all of these events at tournaments held on high school and college campuses throughout Western Washington. Many of these tournaments were invitationals, which can include fifty or more schools. Other tournaments included league contests through which the team tied with other schools in the district for a place at the state competition.

At tournaments, members competed in individual events such as Oratory, Oral Interpretation, Dramatic Interpretation, Extemporaneous, Expository, and Humorous Interpretation.

After their first tournament in January, at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, the team unfortunately got stuck on the on ramp for the freeway for a couple of hours coming home. A week later, during finals, the power went out while a debate was taking place. Dauntless, they continued on with flashlights to finish their debate.

Seniors Somer Weygandt, Clinton Brock, and Elizabeth Semasko inform students about various aspects of FFA at the Club Fair. The Fair is a good way for students to learn about FFA.

Fun for all? Yes! National FFA organization, previously known as Future Farmers of America does not hold the same connotations it once had. It is a organization of students studying agriculture-related concerns. These careers are not typical farming occupations, but rather occupations such as landscaping, greenhouse operations and management, natural resources, business, biology and similar fields.

Last September at the Western Washington Fair held in Puyallup, the Dairy Products and Poultry Judging teams from North Thurston both received second in state.

Members have also competed in Floriculture, Public Speaking, and Parliamentary Procedures ritual contest. Two members, president Darcy Imus and vice president Clinton Brock, and their advisor, Dan White, attended the National Convention in Kansas City, Missouri held November 10-14. Darcy was on the Dairy Products team, placing fifth nationally and third individually. Clinton Brock was on Poultry Judging team placing eighth nationally and 28th individually.

Helping Out

The Community Service Club at North Thurston High School is a great club and does a wonderful job serving the community and helping others.

They set great examples for young students and teenagers by doing community things, such as going and donating to the Salvation Army.

Some events of the Community Service Club this year were going to the Salvation Army and working at the Bread and Roses for the homeless.

Sing and sign was started about four years ago.

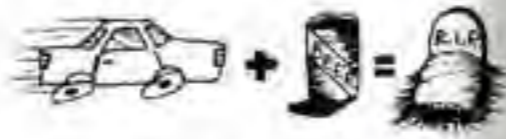

The club was well-received and so Mr. Ted Karanson's sign language class wrote a constitution.

The club was formed in order to organize a cultural celebration. This was to make people aware of different cultures.

Helping Hands

S.A.D.D. (Students Against Drunk Driving) is a club run by students who feel strongly about the damages of drinking and driving. Their concern is to send their message about how serious it is to drive under the influence of alcohol. The group usually meets in Mrs. Bobbie Andreas's portable, Uruguay. She is the S.A.D.D. advisor.

The club members have participated in activities that help students to be aware of the influences of alcohol on the driver's ability to control their car while being intoxicated. They have sold S.A.D.D. keychains, given students quarters on prom cards to make calls when assistance was needed and made posters to warn people of the dangers of drinking and driving.

S.A.D.D.'s Advisor Mrs. Bobbie Andreas communes with her activity group members about different ideas to fight against drunk driving.

Juniors Maryanne Fenstermaker and Sarah Beavin take time off working on their homework during their activity club.

S.A.V.E. The Earth

Executive Committee: Chris Brown, Emily Walker, Misti Schrase

Students against a vanishing earth (SAVE) is one of North Thurston's newer clubs from last year. This group's main goal is to make students aware that they need to be more environmentally conscious. Students started by putting paper in recycle boxes located in each classroom and by recycling aluminum soda cans located throughout the cafeteria.

This group did their part in helping the environment by adopting a well, purchasing two acres of rain forest in Brazil, taking a trip to Wolfhaven and much, much more.

This year's SAVE officers were Emily Walker, Chris Brown, and Matt Russell with advisor Vicky Lamoreaux.

"It's been hard to get people interested and involved, but with the people we do have we've done a lot for the environment."

-Emily Walker, sophomore

"It's a real worth while club because we're trying to help the environment and get some of the problems out in the open, so we can take care of them."

-Chris Brown, sophomore

Sophomore Chris Brown shows what cleaning up really means. S.A.V.E. is a very important club because it helps keep our environment clean.

Aerobics For The Mind Adding Up

Knowledge Bowl is a club that has mind competitions. The competitions are just like playing jeopardy. There are three teams that consist of six to eight people with forty-five questions per round. There are four rounds per competition. Tournaments are held about three to four times a year. They first go to districts and if they place in the top four they go to state. Knowledge Bowl placed first in state on a computer competition earlier this school year.

"Knowledge Bowl was a fun and learning experience. The teams worked well together in competitions, and we did very well."

-Travis Yonker, senior

Knowledge Bowl students combine fun and academics as they plan their next competition during their meeting.

Math Club is a group of students that compete in a yearly spring competition. A team consists of four people and only two teams are sent to competition. If a team does well in regionals then they go to state as a team or individually.

"Our success in the upcoming tournament will depend on our unity. I think unity is our best chance in placing. This year we have a lot of talented people that will help us in April."

-Melvin Pusateri, senior

Senior Melvin Pusateri studies as he gets ready for competition this spring. He is one of eight students hoping to do well and make a name for North Thurston.

Fearless Fire and Safety Powerful Parking Patrol

Fire and Safety is a group of selected students handpicked by Mr. Tony Hawkins to go to classes periodically to do earthquake drills.

During fire drills, they are all assigned a post. So, when they hear the alarm they report to their post to make sure all students get out of the building safely.

They also inspect rooms and other parts of the building for any hazard to make sure this school is safe.

Senior Doug Walker inspects the fire extinguisher to see if it is working properly.

This year Mr. Tony Hawkins and Mr. Joe Beltico started a new class called Parking Patrol. Every period there is a number of students who walk around inspecting the bathrooms and locker rooms to make sure there is no one vandalizing them or breaking into lockers. They also watch the parking lots to make sure cars are safe, and people are parking in the correct places.

"It is a fun class, and it gives you the feeling like the whole parking lot is in the palm of your hand."

-Doug Walker, senior

"The break-ins have cut down to one broken window since the T.A.'s have started."

-Mr. Joe Beltico, teacher

Senior Ryan Stoneberg hides behind a car while patrolling the parking lot.

Dazzling DECA

Distributive Educational Clubs of America is a community-oriented club which encourages leadership and social awareness. Its main goal is to develop business leaders through competition in different areas, such as marketing, officer training workshops, and conferences.

The DECA club members, along with their advisor, Ms. Ronna Reed, held many activities throughout the school year. They had fashion shows for Homecoming, Tolo, and May Dance. Along with these special events, DECA also puts on the annual Christmas fashion show at South Sound Mall. Another promotion DECA participates in annually is the gift wrapping booth located at the South Sound Mall. DECA proved to be another great success this year.

DECA is always open to new members who want to enhance their business background.

Fabulous FBLA

Future Business Leaders of America is a national club for students interested in business. While in FBLA, students have the opportunity to participate in regional, state, and national conferences.

FBLA helps to prepare its members for the business world outside the high school scene. It gives the students the hands-on experiences they need to further themselves in entrepreneurship. They become involved in business in the field and in the classroom. The club also brings in business people from the community and gives the FBLA members a chance to interact and ask any questions they may be curious about.

As they progress, students are able to compete in the following competition events, such as word processing, keyboarding applications, impromptu speaking, business law, FBLA creed, job interviews, business communications, business procedures, business calculations, economics, business graphics, accounting, and parliamentary procedures.

This year has been great for everyone and we hope all of you have fun in your adventures throughout the business arena.

Humanity At Its Best

"We will strive for unity and understanding as a school and as a community." These words, taken from the Preamble and the Cultural Constitution, exemplify the club of Human Relations. Throughout the year, Human Relations planned various assemblies and fund-raisers. The assemblies included the Adopt-A-Family assembly in December, the Asian and Pacific Island assembly in January, a Women's Appreciation assembly in March, a Hispanic celebration in April, and a big cultural celebration in May. In November, the club sponsored a Turkey Drive to raise money for the food drive. The club, open to everyone, is based on interaction in the school and is working to promote a better awareness of cultural difference. It has done this through the activities they have sponsored.

Gifts carry in presents donated by guide groups for needy families during the Adopt-A-Family Assembly. The annual event, held each December, gave donations to more than fifty local families.

The mountain of gifts shows how successful the Adopt-A-Family program has been. The gifts were later delivered to the needy families just in time for the holidays.

Seniors Katrina Maanao and Brian Stucki sing "Beauty and the Beast" in the Adopt-A-Family Assembly. The Human Relations Club also performed a skit based on "Beauty and the Beast."

FOLLOW THE LEADERS

The Junior Varsity Rams ended with a 6-2 season. Coaches Joe Beltico, Tim Brown, and Rennie Leach led a team with strong passing and defense. The JV Rams had two losses, and they could have won both of the games. They were lost in the last minutes of the game.

"We should have played South Kitsap because I know we could have beat them."

-Mark Delacruz,
sophomore

"Our football season was very successful. We need to stay positive, work hard in the off season, encourage all players, and thank Coach Patchin for being positive with all of the players."

-Jose Gutierrez,
sophomore

Top Right: The junior varsity defense was one of their keys to a successful season. They beat the Timberline Blazers 30-6.

Right: Sophomore Jose Gutierrez looks for somebody to block while junior Jacob Broeker punts the ball for the J.V. Rams.

Coaches Dan Coleman and Bill Mendelson led the freshmen Rams to a 7-0 record. They were the Narrows League Champions. Their most exciting game was against Bellarmine. They came back from an 8-6 deficit at halftime to win, North Thurston 13, Bellarmine 8. The offense put together one of the most memorable drives of the season and finished it with a touchdown by Kareem Williams.

"I thought I had a great season because all the players put in one hundred percent."

-Kareem Williams

"All the players worked really hard, and that resulted in our winning season. You can't be a winner unless you act and work like one."

-Mike Babauta

SERVE, SET, AND SPIKE

The North Thurston Women's Volleyball Team went on to take the league championship this season with a 16-0 record. The true talent of the team was shown at the district tournament when they went on to take third place and qualified for state beating the Auburn Trojans and the Rogers Rams. The Junior Varsity also had an outstanding season by taking second place with a 14-2 record. The girls are a promising group of players for the program. The C-team, also a promising team, finished off the season with an overall record of 13-2.

KICKING WITH THE BEST

Beneath the supervision of Varsity Coach Gary Dunn and Junior Varsity Coach Nani Duvall, the women's soccer team was taught to put forth their best effort and to keep at it.

Coach Gary Dunn comments about the team, "This year's team was a hard working group. They played well and came close, but we had our troubles scoring." He continues, "Our season started with a good win against Wilson. Then we lost some key players to injury. We just didn't recover."

Sophomores Breana Crist and Christina Malkmus run side by side while Christina gives a disapproving gesture for coming in second place. The race was held at Heidelberg Park in Tacoma.

Senior Shawn Nicholson runs ahead of his opponent from Wilson. Even though they lost, they gave it their all.

1992 was what people in the coaching profession refer to as a re-building year. Six of the top seven varsity runners from the 1991 team either graduated or transferred to another school. Only three girls returned from that team. As a result, their goals were oriented more toward building interest in the Cross Country Program, rather than competing for a league title.

Coach Backman comments about the team, "Despite a rather dismal record, the people involved in the program had many positive experiences and are better people for having participated in Cross Country."

IN THE SWING

The Varsity constructed a very fine season for themselves, winning the league with a 15-0 record. They beat the perennial league contender, Bellarmine, twice during the regular season. They also knocked off an improved Timberline team to seal the championship title.

The Rams competed well at the league championship tournament, sending teams Todd Lash and Jared Brodin, and Sean Weston and Matt Simons to the district tournament in May. Both teams did great with the leadership of Coach Diane Weston.

Sophomore Amanda Sellai does a front pike at a meet against Timberline. The "Lady Ram Fish" gave their best effort in all meets.

This year's "Lady Ram Fish" did their very best at their meets. At practice, before and after meets, they worked hard and showed great teamwork. They showed team spirit as they rooted for their teammates competing against our opponents. They had a fine season with the help of Coach Todd Haywood and Assistant Coach Theresa Hoder.

RAM FISH MAKE WAVES

The Ramfish started out a new season with not only new team members, but also a new coach. This was Coach Garlin Morlan first year teaching coaching at North Thurston High School. The swimteam had many great swimmers this year. They are looking for more members to become strong competitors in Narrows League in years to come.

ONLY THE STRONG SURVIVE

Seniors Chris Behrends 148, Johnny Taylor 115, Joey Hawkins 141, and Kelly Hanes 178, were all state competitors. With Johnny Taylor taking first making him a two time state champion. Not pictured Brian Sanders 168.

Surviving wrestling isn't for the wimps. Going through Iron Rams and staying at weight wasn't easy for the wrestlers, but to be undefeated and first in league made it all feel like it paid off for them.

"This years wrestling team spent a lot of time and effort to capture the Narrows League Wrestling Crown. They deserved to win and put it together when they had to !!!"

TAKING IT TO THE HOOP

This year, the Women's Basketball team started off slow then finished very strong. The Varsity had great team play. They were led by captains Tonya Larson and Tawnya Miller.

One of the highlights of the season was destroying Stadium: North Thurston 80, Stadium 3.

Dena Niles took over the job of coaching the Junior Varsity team. Players said her coaching style was different but effective.

The freshmen team had great encouragement from the coaching staff.

WEEEE'RE BACK!!!

Weeee're back!!! That's our motto. That's what the North Thurston High School basketball team has been committed to. Striving their way to state. The North Thurston High School basketball team went through a lot of ups and downs. Being ranked in state wasn't easy. It meant a lot of hard work, including sixteen practice hours a week, not to mention tough games. Great job Rams and good luck to next years players!

MAKING RACKET!

The girls' tennis team, Varsity and Junior Varsity members, started with try-outs at the beginning of March. After the team was formed, they started to play matches against other schools such as Bellarmine, Foss, Lincoln, Timberline, Wilson, and Stadium. Twenty-five girls started the season off, unfortunately, many schools didn't have a large Junior Varsity team which caused a few girls to drop out. However, that didn't stop the team from giving up! They kept right on going!

Due to the bad weather, the season was cut short, not allowing the team to play each opponent twice. The team won most of their matches and lost only two to Bellarmine and Wilson. The girls' tennis teams' coaches, Teri Wallace and Diane Weston, were very proud of their swinging success!

Aiming high to hit the ball is Junior Charlyn Chauvin. The girls' tennis team won their match against Stadium.

THE SWING OF THINGS

The best way to describe the North Thurston Rams Fastpitch team is "We don't get mad, we get even." After losing to South Kitsap, North Thurston beat them the next time around. The Rams didn't need to get mad at across town rival, Timberline, because they beat them both times up. The Varsity Rams were first place in Narrows League, and they have a good chance of going to State. The Junior Varsity and "C" team were undefeated during their season.

THREE UP THREE DOWN

What sweet success our Ram Baseball Team has given us in the past. The Baseball program has always been on top at Thurston. This year, we were taken on by a different Varsity coach....Barry Traynor.

Mr. Traynor has been the J.V. coach for many years. Upon the Retirement of Coach Jim Fouts, Barry took over. With his abilities and leadership, the Rams had another Successful year.

Senior Ryan Stoneberg, the ace starter for the Varsity Rams, strikes out another victim. This was his third year being a part of the Varsity team.

Junior Damon Ellison Protects first base as he keeps a runner on. Damon was the starting first base for the Rams.

Sophomore Ryan Shultz is walking off the field after warming up the pitcher. Ryan played on the Varsity team as a back up catcher and also played on the J.V. team.

Freshman Marc Leverington retires another inning in the Bellarmine game.

GOAL SEEKERS

The Men's Soccer Team hit a barrier when they faced Bellarmine. Other than that, the Rams demolished the rest of the Narrows League. Coaches, Gary Dunn and his two sons, Jason and James, have contributed to the mental and physical growth of Rams' soccer. Additional leadership was provided by team captains Todd Lash and Mike Plakos. Congratulations!

Senior Rico Perdon dances his way into stealing the ball away from no. 13. The Rams defeated Eastside Catholic in a 5-0 victory.

RAMS' TRACK: GOIN' FOR IT!

Track! The Ram track team has had a successful year and many members made it to state. The captains were Mike Shell, Tem Mapu, Alicia Jones, and Jason Kisselburgh.

"Track for me has really become a team sport. I felt the support from each member of the team."

-Alicia Jones, junior

"I've been sprinting for two years, and it's a great team sport, and I look forward to it in my future."

-Alex VonNeudegg, sophomore

"Its been an experience for me 'cause this was my first year. I like to jump."

-Scott Henderson, senior

DRIVING FOR SUCCESS

The North Thurston Golf Team had a dramatic start to their season. Their first match, the team tied with Wilson and won in a playoff that didn't count as a win. There was a tight battle for medalist honors among the top three all year.

"Russ, Brian, and I were evenly matched throughout the year. With many underclassmen in the ranks, practice and dedication will benefit the team in years to come."

-Roman Deeds, senior

First Row: Ryan Hartsook, Stewart Blocher, John McGlamery, Thomas Doherty, Adam Cramer Second Row: James McGlamery, Jerry Blake, Jeremy White

Senior Roman Deeds rips his drive off the 1st tee!

Changing The Rules

Sadie Hawkins is a girl ask guy dance, which is "changing the rules" of tradition where guys asks girls. The dance was held on January 9, 1993 in the commons. The theme gave a little Spanish spice to the dance. Sadie Hawkins was sponsored by the Foreign Language Club.

Bottom: Seniors Roman Deeds and Shontina Jones were arrested and put in jail by their friends.

For this fun event, everyone gathers in the commons to dance. The dance is held annually. The clothes are casual, and the Sadies tradition is to wear the same shirts or sweaters.

Juniors Sean O'Donnell, Erik Graudins, and senior Andrea Quaintance draw out wanted posters to have someone they know arrested.

Dancing 'Til Dawn

Junior Stephanie Funk and Sophomore Damon Duggins seem to be busy dancing as they pay attention more to each other than the camera.

Junior James Plummer and Sophomore Katie Tarr seem to be enjoying themselves as they embrace each other throughout the night.

Tolo is not just a place to dance, but a place to socialize and to see how everyone is dressed up. Tolo is A semi-formal dance.

"A Whole New World" from the Disney movie "Aladdin" was the theme for the dance. Tolo is a semi-formal version Sadie Hawkins, where the girl asks that special guy. This dance was held on March 27, 1993, also in the commons. Tolo was sponsored by our very own dance team.

Senior Jason Topinka and Junior Wendy Hochalter are caught in each others arms as they dance to the theme song "A Whole New World" from the movie Aladdin.

Midnight Masquerade

May Dance 1993

May Dance 1993 would be the last time the Class of '93 would be able to ask that special someone, buy that spectacular dress, and walk through the doors of North Thurston all decked out. Midnight Masquerade was the theme, and the North Thurston gym was beautifully transformed into red roses and masks. The night was magical and romantic. Couples cuddled together as the King, Brian Brennan, and Queen, Nancy Gifford were announced.

The night was a complete success. Cascade Photography did the pictures with a beautiful red, black, and white background. The music was played by Sound Presentation with added features such as a fifteen foot video screen, two laser videos, and a roaming cameraman to capture all of the special memories.

May Dance Court: Scott Henderson, Jessica Hancock, Joey Hawkins, Quynh-Nhu Nguyen, Karen Bryant, Brian Brennan, Kim Baker, Mike Heath, Nikki Mailey, Chesty Kemper, Charla Avery, Blake Bridges, Nancy Gifford, Chad Balcom

The Best Get Better

The best got better this year, academically speaking. With over ninety seniors receiving Top Honors on Graduation Night, the class of '93 had the highest number of Honor students since the Top Honor System was initiated three years ago.

There are three levels of Top Honors: Honors, High Honors, and Highest Honors.

Honors refers to students with a grade point average of 3.25 to 3.49. High Honors refers to the students with a grade point average of 3.5 to 3.74. The Highest Honors goes to those who maintain a grade point average of 3.75 to 4.0.

Honors students receive a silver cord at graduation, High Honors students receive a gold cord, and Highest Honors students receive a gold medallion for all of their efforts over the past four years.

These students exemplify the academic spirit that thrives at North Thurston. All these students work hard for what they want to achieve.

Freshman Tina Olson took part in gymnastics at Olympia High School while attending school at North Thurston. Olson was qualified to go to state. She placed fortieth out of three-hundred participants. She has been in gymnastics for eight years, and the vault is her favorite event.

"I wish North Thurston had gymnastics."
-Tina Olson, freshman

North Thurston is honored to congratulate this year's Lakefair Princess, Katrina Maanao. Katrina's reign is for an entire year, and she represents the Olympia area by going to parades and other community functions as far away as Vancouver, Canada. Capitalarians presented her with a $750 scholarship fund for being Lakefair Princess.

"I'm honored to have the opportunity to represent North Thurston and my community in the Lakefair events."

-Katrina Maanao, senior

EDITORS MESSAGE

After months and months of work,
 the yearbook is done. Hardwork, dedication, pride—that is what the 1993 annual staff showed this year.
 From day one, we worked together as a team. Everyone communicated well and the closeness of the staff was unbelievable. Thanks for putting up with me guys!

My biggest thanks goes to Sharon Hartnett.
 What can I say? We sure had one heck of a year. For being a first year advisor, you did a fantastic job. Your superb leadership and organization skills surely stood out and made the difference this year. I don't want to thank you only as a teacher, but as a friend. All in all you're a wonderful person. You did a tremendously outstanding job this year and I know the years to come will be even better.

I also would like to thank my Assistant Editor Doug Walker. You were such a big help. I don't know how I would of handled the year without you. Thanks for taking charge.

As I say good-bye, I would like to thank the annual staff for the good and the bad times we had together.
 I surely will miss everyone and I will always remember each and every one of you. I love you guys. Remember, keep "Holding on to the Memories" because I will.
